ALLEN WISE KILLED.

WELL KNOWN NEGRO GAMBLER KILLED BY JIM PRICE.

On Saturday night during a negro row at Peter Noble's house about a mile and a half from town, Allen Wise, a well known negro gambler, was shot by Jim Price, which resulted in the death of the former on Sunday morning. From what can be learned from those present, it seems that they had all been gambling and drinking whisky, in fact Allen Wise died under the influence of whisky. Coroner Gillson was notified and immediately came to the scene. The following jury was drawn: W. W. Holston, foreman; M. M. Holston, D. W. Holston, J. E. Wise, W. L. Wise, S. C. Wise, H. C. Bodie, W. F. Bodie, L. S. Bouknight, Staunton Willis, E. A. Aughtery and Noah Gantt, colored.

The jury found their verdict as follows: "That Allen Wise came to his death by a gunshot wound in the hands of Jim Price." At this writing Price has not been captured.

TRENTON WON FROM LOCALS

IN FAST GAME--RAWL'S PITCHING GIVES GAME AWAY.

ARTHUR JONES' PITCHING ONLY FEATURE.

On Tuesday the Trenton ball team defeated the locals in a fast game by a score of four to nothing.

The game was given to the visitors in the first four innings, while Rawl was pitching. He was hit hard and it was during his pitching that the game was lost.

But the feature of the game--and the only feature--was Arthur Jones' pitching for the locals. In five innings he struck out seven men and yielded only one hit. Had Jones consented to pitch at the beginning it could have been different.

The visitors played fairly good ball. They are a manly set of fellows, and we would be glad for them to come again.

Dr. J. Arthur Watson umpired the game with the eye of an eagle. His decisions were prompt, just and fair to both sides.

ANOTHER LICKING

JOHNSTON DEFEATED BATESBURG. MIMS HARTLEY INJURED.

Yesterday afternoon at Johnston Batesburg got another licking, the score being 6 to 2 in favor of Johnston. The game was ours up to the ninth inning, the score being 2 to 1 in favor of the home team, with two outs and two men on bases. But hit the ball and knocked it square in Rickard's hands; the game was lost. Rickard failed--for the first time in his life--to catch the ball.

During the game Mr. Mims Hartley received a severe injury to his ankle, which will lay him up for several days. Oh! such luck.

INTEREST PAYABLE AUGUST THE FIRST.

On August 1st. The First National Bank of Batesburg will pay their usual quarterly dividend to depositors in the Savings Department. Interest period begins on the First of each month. Now is the time to be getting your pennies and your dimes together so that by the beginning of another quarter you will have a nucleus with which to open an account and begin to save and let your money work for you which you have been promising yourself to do for years perhaps. It is the person who puts away for a rainy day who never comes to want; it is the man who creates a reserve fund who has means to pay his doctor's bills and insures for himself proper nourishment and attention when he is sick; it is business opportunity, to take advantage of a "good trade" when it is offered. The First National Bank of Batesburg pays interest on time deposits and lends money on approved endorser's or satisfactory security.

LEXINGTON MISS MANNIE BATES' HOUSE PARTY.

Col. and Mrs. M. D. Harman celebrated the fortieth anniversary of their marriage Tuesday evening at their lovely home on lower Main street. The youthful groom and his fair bride received their guests beneath a marriage bell in the parlor. In the reception hall, parlor and dining room the color scheme of dark red was beautifully carried out. Red ribbon hearts, love-knots and wedding bells were gracefully mingled with tall palms and ferns. Little Misses Lucia Meetze Harman, of Augusta and Eva Dunning, of Columbia, served delicious punch to the guests.

During the evening an old-fashioned wedding dinner, of meats, salads and ices were served. Only the immediate family and the friends who were present at their wedding party years ago, were present at this ruby wedding.

Many beautiful presents, appropriate for the occasion, were received. All the children and grand-children of Col. and Mrs. Harman were present, except Mr. and Mrs. Newell Lee and children, of Tampa, Fla. Those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. B. Harman and children, of Augusta; Prof. Arthur Harman, of New Decatur, Ala.; Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Snyder and children, of Lakesland, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Harman, of Augusta; Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hubbard, of Columbia and Miss Annie Lou Harman. The friends present on this happy occasion were: Rev. and Mrs. J. G. Graichen and Mrs. Ernestine Graichen, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. E. Hendrix, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. E. Rawl, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Roof, Mr. G. M. Harman, Misses Vinnie and Ceciline Harman, Prof. and Mrs. E. W. Raub, Mrs. Thos. P. Meetze, Mrs. Elizabeth Harman, Miss Emma Hernandez, of Charleston, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Rawl, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Rail, of Batesburg.

Miss Fannie Oswald has returned from a visit to friends at Gastonia and Charlotte, N. C.

Miss Theresa Cox, of Goldsboro, N. C., left Sunday for a short visit to North.

Mr. Wade Oswald is very ill at his home at Barr.

Mrs. Minnie Meetze and Miss Anna Martha Meetze are enjoying a visit to Sullivan's Island.

Miss Pearl Oswald gave a delightful fishing party to a few of her friends Friday. Those invited were: Misses Mary and Ruth Graham and Theresa Cox, and Messrs. Edwin G. Drener, Rion Graham, Karl Oswald, Carl Roof and Heber Barre.

Mrs. Lula Beeland and children, of Mason, Ga., are visiting here.

Col. G. T. Graham, our champion fox hunter, has killed six and captured one this week with his fine pack of hounds. He is raising one gray fox for a pet.

Mr. C. S. Bradford and family, who moved to Portsmouth, Va., last year, will move back and occupy the residence of the late Dr. Hendrix.

The Lutheran Sunday school convention will begin here Friday and continue until Sunday. About 200 ministers and delegates are expected.

Edwin Folk Strother, Esq., of Batesburg, was in town on legal business Friday.

Mrs. India Brown, of near Woodford, was brought to jail Sunday. Dr. Derrick pronounced her a lunatic and Sheriff Corley took her to Columbia Monday afternoon.

Miss Sadie Mathis, of Augusta, is visiting the Misses George.

CONSABLE SEIZES JUG FROM MAIL MAN.

OFFICER TAKES WHISKEY FROM MAIL CARRIER IN SALUDA COUNTY AFTER A STRUGGLE.

Saluda, July 22.--State Constable Tom Bason Perry, who arrived here at midday Monday, has already caused consternation among suspected tigers. He captured two two-gallon jugs on the road from Ridge Spring in the afternoon after quite a little "experience." The constable left here about 8 o'clock and a few minutes afterward, it is said that F. G. Cromer and W. D. Berry got a team and started out to meet the mail carrier and get the liquor before the constable could reach him.

On coming up with the mail carrier the constable demanded the whisky of him. He denied of having any. The constable then gave him orders to make no delivery of it until he reached Saluda. The carrier then stated that he had got pay for hanging it and he did not care who got it.

Cromer and Berry were now present. The constable went to the carrier's buggy and got one jug out. Cromer seized this and it was quite a time before he would let it go. Perry ordered Berry, who by the way, is his kinsman, to help him take the jug from Cromer. This Berry refused to do. Finally Perry twisted the jug from Cromer and placed it in his own buggy. In the meantime Gillion, the mail carrier, handed the second jug out to Berry, who placed it in the buggy occupied by himself and Cromer.

Perry now went for this jug, Berry seized it and refused to let it go. At last Perry took this jug also and brought both to this town.

Cromer and Berry had a double-barrel gun in the buggy with them, but Perry got the liquor.

A. J. Cromer, a brother of F. G. Cromer, yesterday made demand for one of the jugs, saying it was his liquor and had been ordered by him and shipped to Ridge Spring for him. He made affidavit to this effect. Perry phoned to the express agent at the Ridge, who told him one of the jugs was shipped in the name of F. G. Cromer, but neither came in the name of A. J. Cromer.

Further developments are awaited with interest.

There have been rumors of tigers hereabouts for some time and all the good people of this town and county are ready to stand by the work of any constable who will do his duty fearlessly and without favor.

Perry has shipped one of the jugs to Columbia and still holds the other. --Ex.

A COMING MARRIAGE.

MISS MAUDE KERNAGHAN TO WED MR. JOHN WESLEY STEWART.

The following invitations received in Batesburg this morning will be of interest to all Batesburg, this being the childhood home of Miss Kernaghan:

Mrs. Kate M. Kernaghan requests the honor of your presence at the marriage of her daughter MAUDE LEIZE to

MR. JOHN WESLEY STEWART Wednesday evening, August the eighth nineteen hundred and six at nine-thirty o'clock 1313 Lady street Columbia, South Carolina.

Edgefield News.

MRS. T. B. MAYS DEAD--CANDIDATES WHO ASPIRE TO THE VARIOUS OFFICERS.

Edgefield, July 23.--Special: Mrs. Mays, wife of Col. S. B. Mays, died at her home three miles west of town Friday. This good and universally beloved woman had been in bad health for some time and although her death brought a pang of poignant sorrow to a wide circle of relatives and friends, it was not unexpected. Before marriage she was a Miss Calhoun, having several brothers prominent in business and public affairs in the State of Texas. She possessed in a high degree the virtues that make true womanhood, and did charity with a lavish but unostentatious hand. She was the mother of Mr. Calhoun Mays, now a student of the Charleston College.

The entries have been made, the race is on, now for the goal! The following completes the list: Legislature--J. W. DeVore, B. E. Nicholson, L. T. Williams, Ira C. Carson.

Superintendent of Education--W. D. Holland, A. R. Nicholson. Auditor--J. B. Haltiwanger, H. W. Dobby.

Treasurer--J. T. Patterson, R. E. Morgan. Supervisor--D. P. Self, R. J. Moultrie, C. E. Quarles, J. R. Blocker.

Of the Legislative candidates it is understood that Mr. Nicholson and Mr. Carson, the latter being the editor of the Johnston News-Monitor, are prohibitionists, the other two being for the dispensary.--News and Courier
